Whether you are a longtime supporter or joining us for the first time, this season is about connection.

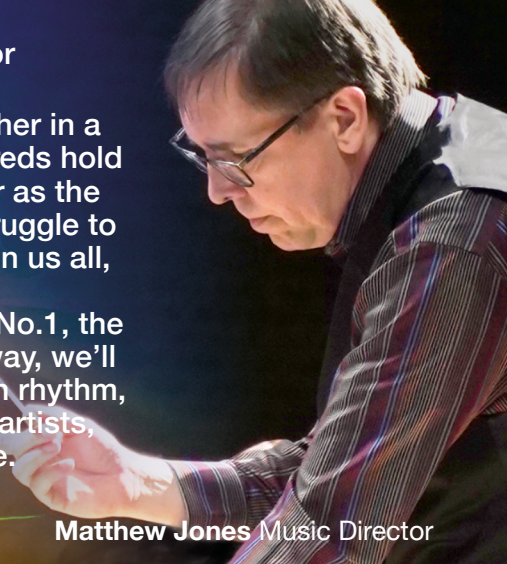

Live orchestral music has a unique power to bring us together in a deeply moving moment. You feel the connection when hundreds hold their breath during a quiet flute solo or hearts race together as the music builds to a full fortissimo finale. Timeless themes – struggle to triumph, intimacy to exhilaration – evoke the same feelings in us all, reminding us we share a common bond.

You'll hear the monumental opening of Brahms's Symphony No.1, the sweeping majesty of Sibelius's Symphony No. 5. Along the way, we'll transport you to Spain and Mexico in a program bursting with rhythm, colour and passion. We'll also celebrate remarkable guest artists, each bringing their own story and artistry to the stage.

I hope you will join us and invite you to experience it for yourself
